1996 Opponents -- Dunkel Index

The Dunkel system, started in 1929, provides a continuous index to the relative strength of all teams.

It reflects average scoring margin combined with average opposition rating, weighted in favor of recent performance. Example: a 50.0 team has been scoring 10 points stronger, per game, than a 40.0 team against opposition of equal strength.

Salisbury State's Dunkel Index entering the '96 season is 30.6.

Delaware Valley	15.0
Trenton State	41.7
Methodist	19.7
Frostburg State	25.7
Catholic	30.6
Chowan	10.1
Wesley	41.1
Bethany	24.0

JOE ROTELLINI -- Head Coach

Discipline. Organization. Pride.

Those are just three of the traits that Head Coach Joe Rotellini brings to the SSU football program. No matter what the scoreboard says or what the team's record may be, Rotellini's squads demonstrate the unmistakable characteristics of a winner. Practice hard. Play with intensity. Excel in the classroom. Show class at all times.

Rotellini's characteristics are woven throughout the Sea Gull program. His players have clearly adopted the discipline that is Rotellini's trademark. The coach's well-developed system of organization is also strongly entrenched. SSU players proudly represent the program and the University while wearing the Maroon & Gold colors.

"We want quality people involved in our program," says Rotellini. "We want to recruit and retain young men who will represent Salisbury State University with class, both on and off the field."

Rotellini already had an impressive resume of coaching credentials when he took the reins as Salisbury State's head coach in 1990. He spent 12 years as an assistant coach, including two years (1985-86) as an assistant previously at SSU. The Sea Gulls advanced to the NCAA Division III playoffs in both seasons, finishing as the national championship runnersup in 1986.

A native of McDonald, PA, Rotellini, 41, holds an associate degree from Anne Arundel Community College in Maryland, and received his Bachelor of Arts in physical education and health from Bethany (WV) College in 1977. He later earned his Master of Education in administration and supervision from Loyola (MD) College in 1982.

Rotellini began his football coaching career at Anne Arundel CC as an assistant coach in 1978. He then moved to Glen Burnie (MD) High School as an assistant varsity coach from 1979-84.

In 1984, Rotellini joined the staff at Alfred (NY) University, where he coached the defensive line. One year later, he returned to Maryland and began his first stint with the Sea Gulls. In his initial season at Salisbury, Rotellini coordinated a defense that was ranked 15th in the nation in rushing defense. The following year, with primary duties as offensive line coach, he helped the Gulls achieve national rankings of second in total offense, third in rushing offense and eighth in scoring offense.

While his coaching duties are now limited to head coach for football only, Rotellini was also Salisbury State's head lacrosse coach in 1986 and 1987. He compiled an impressive 22-10 record in his two seasons, and led the Gulls to a sixth place national ranking and a berth in the NCAA Championship Tournament in 1986.

Rotellini joined the staff at Shippensburg University in 1987, assuming the position of assistant head football coach. He coordinated all administrative duties for the Red Raider football program in addition to his on-field coaching duties with the offensive line. SU was the Pennsylvania State Athletic Conference's Western Division champion in 1988.

Rotellini is an active member of the American Football Coaches Association (AFCA), and serves on several of the organization's committees. He is a member of the AFCA's Division III Executive Council, and also serves on the Championship Competition Committee. Rotellini is a past member of the AFCA's Coach-of-the-Year and all-America selection committees as well. In addition to his positions with the coaches association, Rotellini serves on the NCAA's South Regional Advisory Committee and is also a member of the National Football Foundation.

In addition, Rotellini is a past president of the Anne Arundel County Coaches Association. He is a frequent speaker at football clinics throughout the region, and serves as an instructor and coordinator at several different football camps each summer. He makes numerous local speaking appearances each year as a popular member of the SSU Speakers Bureau and is also a member of the Salisbury Optimist Club. Joe and his wife Liz reside in Salisbury.

1996 Assistant Coaches

Robb Disbennett
Offensive Coordinator

A former all-America quarterback for the Sea Gulls and a 1996 inductee to SSU's Hall of Fame, Disbennett is in his sixth season on the Salisbury staff. He served as an assistant coach at Central Connecticut State before returning to the Eastern Shore in 1991. Disbennett owned virtually every team passing record when he graduated in 1986, and still claims the marks for most touchdown passes in a season and career, highest completion percentage for a season, and most consecutive passes completed. Under Disbennett's leadership, Salisbury State finished ranked 14th in the nation in passing in 1993 and 1994. Robb and his wife Marcy reside in Hebron, MD.

Wayne Bradford
Defensive Coordinator

Another former Sea Gull player now in his seventh season as an assistant coach, Bradford is serving in his third year as the defensive coordinator. In addition to his overall responsibility for the defense, he also serves as a position coach with the linebackers. Bradford has worked previously with the defensive line, and began his coaching career at SSU as a defensive intern. The Glen Burnie, MD native was an offensive lineman during his Sea Gull playing career. In addition to his football duties, Bradford is the Director of the MBA Program in SSU's Franklin P. Perdue School of Business, as well as an instructor in the school. Wayne and his wife Gwen reside in Ocean Pines, MD.

Kevin Colliton
Offensive Line

Having played and coached for the Sea Gulls in the mid-80s, Colliton returned to Salisbury State with Rotellini in 1990. After his initial run with the Gulls, Colliton served as the offensive coordinator at Shippensburg University for three seasons before returning to SSU. He has been most directly responsible for the offensive line's development over the past several seasons. The 1996 season marks the 12th straight year that Colliton and Rotellini have worked together. Kevin and his wife Sue have three children, Sarah, Corie and Patrick, and reside in Hebron.

Rob Grande
Special Teams Coordinator

Grande is now in his fifth season on the coaching staff and serving his second year as the special teams coordinator. Grande concluded his playing career as SSU's placekicker in 1991, finishing second on the squad in scoring that season with 31 points. He converted 16 of 18 extra point attempts and succeeded on five of eight field goals. He has also served as the team's kicking coach, linebackers coach and special teams assistant during his coaching tenure with the Gulls. Grande works as a math instructor in the Wicomico County Public School System. He and his wife Penny live in Salisbury.

Len Annetta
QBs & Receivers

The most prolific passer in Sea Gull history, Annetta is now in his second year as an assistant at his alma mater. Annetta, who worked mainly with the running backs last season, will oversee the quarterbacks and receivers this fall. A 1994 SSU graduate, Annetta served as an offensive assistant on the staff at William & Mary for one season before returning to Salisbury last year. He was a two-year captain for the Gulls and team MVP as a senior, Annetta set 11 school passing records while also becoming the first Gull to pass for over 2,000 yards in a season. Len is single and lives in Salisbury.

Allan Henshaw
Defensive Line

A former defensive end at West Virginia Wesleyan, Henshaw is in his second year at Salisbury State after serving as outside linebackers coach at Hamilton (NY) College in 1994. A 1993 graduate of WVW, Henshaw also served as defensive ends coach at his alma mater in 1993, helping the defense to a third place NAIA national ranking in rushing yards and scoring. Allan is single and resides in Salisbury.

Kevin Vail
Defensive Line

Returning for his second year as a member of the staff, Vail will share responsibility for the defensive line with Coach Henshaw. Vail, one of the anchors on Salisbury's defensive line during his playing career, will work primarily with the defensive tackles this season. Vail played in all nine games for the Gulls as a senior in 1994, starting eight, and finished with 32 tackles, including one for loss. Vail's younger brother Terry joins the Gulls as a running back this season. Kevin is single and lives is Salisbury.

David Doy
Offensive Assistant

Doy, SSU's starting quarterback in 1995, begins his first season as a member of the coaching staff this fall. A four-year letterman, Doy guided the Gulls to their first winning campaign in seven years last fall. He posted the third highest single-season passing total in school history by finishing with 1,796 yards in 1995, including four games of 200 yards or more. Doy finished with the highest career completion percentage (59.5%) in team history. Doy also works in the Franklin P. Perdue School of Business. He is single and lives in Salisbury.

Marc Hannah
Defensive Assistant

A four-year letterman and three-year starter who capped his career by earning AFCA All-America honors at linebacker last season. Hannah, a two-year team captain, finished tied for the team lead in tackles in 1995 with 81. He also finished with five tackles in the backfield, including one sack, and one interception. Hannah also scored his first career touchdown by returning a fumble against Newport News. Marc is single and resides in Salisbury.

SALISBURY STATE UNIVERSITY -- 1996 Football Season Outlook

Coming off its first winning season in seven years and its first postseason appearance since 1986, Salisbury State is optimistic as it enters the 1996 campaign. Head Coach Joe Rotellini, now in his seventh season, returns six offensive starters and 10 defensive starters from a 7-3 team that played in the ECAC Southwest Championship Game.

Offensively, the Sea Gulls return two of their top three receivers and six of last year's top eight linemen. Mike Muldoon (38 rec, 352 yds) and Steve Boyd (21 rec, 217 yds) are sure-handed receivers who lead the wideouts and sophomore TE Ryan Brooks (9 rec, 72 yds) should play a bigger role in the offense this season.

"We have good experience at the receiver position," said Rotellini. "Most of our returnees are good possession receivers. We still need to find a deep ball threat. We want to add somebody to our rotation who can stretch the defense."

Senior starters Jacques Keller (6-3, 250) and Wayne Johnson (5-10, 220) will anchor the line and are joined by four other returnees, Roland Storey (6-1, 240), Jason Shipley (6-2, 250), Vince Mroz (6-0, 230) and Damian Ferragamo, who all saw significant action last year.

"We need the offensive line to jell pretty quickly," said Rotellini. "It's important that the players on the offensive line work well together. It's an area we think we can improve upon from last year."

Junior Kris Kershaw and sophomore Jeff Dolch appear to be the top candidates to replace graduated David Doy at quarterback. Kershaw had two pass attempts last year while Dolch has not handled a snap in a varsity game.

"The job is open for either of those two players," said Rotellini. "They both have the tools to get the job done. It will depend on how each progesses through the preseason."

Junior Mac James (347 yds, 5 TDs) is the top returning rusher. Junior Michael Okoh, who missed most of last season due to injury, and sophomore Brian Blessing, who has missed most of the past two seasons, are also expected back.

"All the players we're looking at in the backfield have started games at some point in the last two years," said Rotellini. "They each have different qualities and seem to complement each other. I feel good about the group."

Senior kicker George Mayer, who converted nine of 15 field goals and scored 51 points last year, is coming off an all-star season and could be a candidate for postseason honors again.

"Offensively, we need to establish the running game more than we did last year," said Rotellini. "We'd like to have a 50-50 mix, even when we employ a one-back set."

Defensively, 11 of the top 12 tackle leaders are due back on an experienced unit. Seniors Travis Royall (81 tackles, 1 INT) and Tim Jones (68 tackles, 4 INT) headline a veteran secondary. Seniors Ty Smith (37 tackles, 2 INT) and Doug Payne (39 tackles) are also back as starters at the corner positions.

"We have a veteran group with a lot of senior experience in the defensive backfield," said Rotellini. "They played very well last year and we look for them to continue to build on last year's success. We hope to see more big plays from this unit as well this season."

David Radziewicz (69 tackles), Shane Claiborne (42 tackles) and Brian Baxter (51 tackles) are among the key linebackers and should help to offset the loss of second-leading tackler Marc Hannah, an AFCA all-American last year.

"The linebackers we have, as a whole, are a pretty athletic group," said Rotellini. "We might still move some people around during the preseason, but I feel good about this unit."

Senior Mitchell David (23 tackles, 2 sacks) and junior Mike Brouthers (50 tackles, 4 sacks) are returning starters at defensive end, with tackles Steve DePaul (45 tackles, 2 sacks) and Kevin Antos (47 tackles, 6 sacks) back on the inside. Juniors Marc Salerno (12 tackles), Chris Sulhoff (seven tackles) and converted linebacker Bruce Harrell add further depth.

"All the players on the line were very consistent in their play last year," said Rotellini. " We had a good rotation last season and we were able to keep everybody fresh.

"Overall, we feel good about the number of returnees and the experience we have back on defense. We return 18 of our top 22 defensive players from last year. We expect a lot from this group in 1996 and expect them to be even better than they were last year."

ALL-STAR CANDIDIATES

(These three Sea Gulls have been selected to College Football Preview magazine's 1996 Preseason All-America list)

SS Tim Jones (5'10", 195) -- Three-year starter...Led the team with 4 interceptions, including one TD return...Finished third in tackles with 68, including 12 in upset win over arch-rival Frostburg State... Joined the Sea Gulls as a transfer from Division I-AA Delaware State, where he redshirted as a freshman.

FS Travis Royall (5'10", 179) -- Team's leading tackler (81) who also topped the squad with 5 pass breakups...Recorded a season-high 13 tackles vs. Albright in ECAC Championship Game... Also had 10 tackles in win at Newport News and nine against Trenton State and Wesley...Selected to ECAC South Region all-star team.

K George Mayer (6'1", 195) -- Made an immediate impact last year after transferring from the Univ. of Maryland...Finished as the team's second leading scorer with 51 points...Converted nine of 15 field goal attempts and 22 of 23 PATs...9 of 10 on field goals inside 40 yards...Booted 25-yard game winner in fourth quarter to upset Wesley...Named to ECAC South Region all-star team.

★ The 25th Season ★

The 1996 season marks the 25th year of competition for the Salisbury State football program. Through last year, the Sea Gulls have a 128-101-4 all-time record, and have scored 5,477 points in 233 games since 1972. SSU has registered 14 winning seasons. The Gulls advanced to the Amos Alonzo Stagg Bowl, the NCAA Division III Championship Game, in 1986, and also made NCAA Tournament appearances in 1983 and 1985. SSU played in the ECAC Southwest Bowl Game in 1995.

Current Head Coach Joe Rotellini is the fifth man to hold that position in the program's 25 years. Serving his seventh year at the helm this fall, his tenure equals that of Dick Yobst, Salisbury's first head coach, for longevity.
